Brenda Simon

Brenda's voice and style are distinctive. Her voice will capture you and take you to another place. Her melodies are uplifting, while her lyrics are moving. Brenda has a pure and natural voice. The kind of voice that only comes around once in a blue moon.

Brenda is a singer/song writer who performs mostly in Greater Los Angeles Area. Her first album was called "Fire In the Country (There's Always Hope)". It contains a collection of Country-Pop and Adult Contemporary songs.

What you might not know about Brenda is that she also an accomplished artist in the field of watercolor. She loves drawing and her subjects include her love of nature and her infatuation for the days of growing up in England. She says, "When I lived in England I was enthralled with how history surrounded me. You could walk 'where kings walked', and all those fairy tale cottages really did exist."

Wherever you go on the net, Brenda's music is not far. She is diverse with her country-oriented sound. From fiery ballads to driving rhythms, Brenda can appeal to a lot of people in many different ways.

She currently has one song on Music4Free.com called "First Time It Hits Me" which she says is "the first song I wrote around a 'feel'. It's not hard to remember being dumped". For some great Country-Pop sounds be sure to check out Brenda Simon at Music4Free.com. –

FIRE IN THE COUNTRY

by Gary

This CD was a very nice surprise - it's full of catchy tunes and interesting lyrics that Brenda delivers in a very unique and captivating style. "Until My Heart Stops Beatin'" is guaranteed to set your soul on fire. She has this beautiful rich voice that just carries you away, like on "Outlaw" and "The First Time It Hits Me", and she cranks it up on "Mexico". Definitely a great CD for rainy days and daydreaming!
