

Simon & Simon

Simon & Simon is an exciting act blending contemporary hits of today, classic rock and pop, easy listening music and original songs. Each night's performance is tailored to the mood and taste of the audience. (No predetermined set lists.)

Simon & Simon perform over 500 of the greatest songs ever recorded and ever expanding their repertoire. Simon & Simon have the sound of a seven piece. A fully controlled sound allows for soft, background ambience or a more energetic performance.

Brenda Simon is the lead vocalist and plays guitar. An exciting performer and an exceptionally gifted vocalist, she captivates an audience with her expression and lyric interpretation. Her enthusiasm and personality are refreshing and welcomed by both audiences and management.

Doug plays keyboards and runs the sound to maintain a lush stereo quality. His ear for arrangement, production sense and solo-ing technique give each song a unique, full sound. His willingness to work with club management ensures fine entertainment, a smooth-running show and a pleasurable engagement.

Brenda's website is a base for fans to keep track of performances, upcoming events and read "behind the scenes". Her performance schedule webpage links to available websites of the venues they play. Brenda actively keeps in contact with fans, sending a monthly email newsletter and corresponding via snail mail.

Together Brenda and Doug complete the sounds of Simon & Simon.
